MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

★

AsSalamu Alaikum WaRahmatullah WaBarakatuh!

★
All Praise and Thanks is for Allah the Most High, Who out of His Infinite Mercy, has blessed us with life into this Ramadan. May His peace and blessings be upon Prophet Muhammad (S) who taught us how to best realize our fullest potential this month. ★

Abu Huraira (R) narrates that Allah's Messenger (S) said, "Whoever observes fasts during the month of Ramadan out of sincere faith, and hoping to attain Allah's rewards, then all their past sins will be forgiven." (Sahih Bukhari). In another narration, Abu Hurairah (R) narrated that, the Messenger of Allah (S) said: "Whoever stands in the voluntary night prayer of Ramadan out of faith and in the hope of Allah's reward, their previous sins will be forgiven. And whoever spends the night of Lailat Al-Qadr in prayer out of faith and in the hope of Allah's reward, their previous sins will be forgiven." (Sunan An-Nasa'i)

We remind ourselves of the great opportunity this month to earn Allah's pleasure, forgiveness, and mercy. Ramadan is also the month of the Quran, and this month presents a renewed opportunity for us to reconnect with Allah's words, derive inspiration, and learn to love the Book which is the foundation of our faith and way of life. We ask Allah to accept our deeds and allow us to grow closer to Him during Ramadan.

On behalf of the Board at Masjid ArRahmah, we congratulate you on reaching this month of Ramadan, and we hope that you may participate and benefit in the programs being offered at our Masjid this year!

AR RAHMAH
ISLAMIC CENTER
OF AURORA COLORADO

Story time for toddlers at 10AM every Sunday

Last 10 Nights

“Indeed We have sent it (the Quran) down on the Night of al-Qadr. And what will make you understand what the Night of al-Qadr is? The Night of al-Qadr is better than one thousand months.” Surah Al-Qadr 1-3

With regards to the last ten nights of Ramadan, A’isha (R) narrates that the Messenger of Allah (S) used to strive more in worship during Ramadan than he strove in any other time of the year; and he would devote himself more (in the worship of Allah) in the last ten nights of Ramadan than he strove in earlier part of the month. (Muslim)

We will be offering Qiyam Al-Layl this year at Masjid ArRahmah beginning on the 21st night of Ramadan (early morning of Sunday, March 31). Qiyam will start at 3:30am. Suhoor will be served each night during the last ten nights.

- Night 27: Munaafiqoon 1 - Jinn 28
- Night 28: Burooj 1 - Layl 21
- Night 29: TBD
- Night 30: TBD

Reminders

1. BE WELCOMING FOR CHILDREN

Be tolerant and aware of children around you. These children are our future leaders, let's make the masjid a place they feel at home. If behavior becomes intolerable please kindly and respectfully ask the parents to mitigate behavior.

2. SPREAD SALAAM

Smile and greet people who you don't know, let's make people feel welcome and increase the sense of brotherhood and sisterhood in our community. The prophet (peace be upon him) said, "Smiling is an act of charity" (At-Tirmidhi)

3. RESPECT FOR GUESTS AND SPEAKERS

Respect the person/s who are leading a discussion, lecture or prayer by being silent. If you must talk, please step outside. Refrain from distracting activities such as phones.

4. OBSERVING ISLAMIC BEHAVIOR

Respecting others, humility, cleanliness, kindness, courtesy and arrange proper rows making sure to fill the gaps.

5. MOSQUE CLEANLINESS

Please clean up after yourself. Ensure your prayer space and the bathroom is clean after use.

Ramadan Mubarak!
